A Note from the Artistic Director

Thank You!

Thank you to all our amazing students! You have all worked so hard on your shows and I know how excited you are to share them with your families and friends!

Thank you to all our wonderful families! Your continued support of the studio is appreciated more than you know.

Thank you to all our spectacular teachers, staff, crew, and volunteers! Your tireless work to ensure our students have the best experience possible shines through in all the huge smiles we see on stage!

We are so excited for not only our upcoming shows but some new programs at Showstoppers. This July, our Masters and Seniors classes will be taking their first ever trip to New York to take part in workshops with Broadway professionals and of course see some amazing theatre! Next Spring Break, our Show Choir class will be traveling to Disneyland to perform and take part in workshops with Disney professionals. I know there have been some challenges with once again changing locations half way through the year, but we are thrilled to be set at the Seniors centre for the foreseeable future and, of course, will continue to look for a new permanent home.

Thanks again for being an amazing community, we couldn't do it without you!
On with the show!

Chad

SPECIAL THANKS

We are so excited to present Frog and Toad to you this weekend! It comes to you as a result of many hands working very hard over many, many months! Much of the work comes from people whose faces you may not see, but without them, we would not have a production.

Thank you to Dan and John, the creators of our amazing sets. The time you spend creating our vision and the attention to detail is greatly appreciated. You can feel the magic when you walk into the theatre. To Jan, for designing wigs and hairstyles for our characters and for the time you spend with us backstage, we are so very grateful. To our amazing teaching assistants Kaylen, Callie and Ava who have assisted our young actors as they learned parts, created choreography and led many games to utilize our littles ones' endless energy, we say a big "thank you"! Kelsey, Claire, Dara and the many hands who created costumes and during our dress added last minute touches, we are truly grateful! To all of the volunteers who help out in front of house, loading in and out, helping with quick changes backstage, and to Joanie who manages all of our volunteers, a huge thank you. We could not pull this off without you. To the Inlet Theatre we are grateful to use this beautiful space. To our parents and student community, they say it takes a village and ours is very strong and supportive. Thank you for bringing your children to rehearsals, for running lines and songs and for being a huge part of our Lindbjerg family. And finally, we want to express our gratitude to Chad and Erin. Over the years, you have given thousands of young people a safe space to explore, create and perform and have trusted your teachers to guide them along in their journeys. We are so grateful to both of you for your support and for the opportunity for us to share our passions with our young performers.
